Hou. Thomas H. Paynter, Democratic candidate, is respectfully invited to be present and a proper division of time will be accorded.

ANOTHER industry made possible in this country by the McKinley bill is the making of down quilts. At the time of its passage there was but one weak lit-tle factory, and the average price of the cheapest kind was $12. A duty was the Maysville High School to fill the poplaced against down quilts, and to-day sition. The Board of Examiners continuous whose product is placed upon L. Sallee, Esq., Professor J. H. Roland. The market at an average of $6 for the me quality heretofore charged $12 for. be held on the 4th of November.

THE Democrats at the last session of Congress passed in the House a free wool bill. Had their bill become a law, the destruction of the sheep and wool in-Wool Production dustry in the United and the Tariff. States would have been complete.

The vast amount of money invested in sheep and the extent of the industry throughout the Nation are shown in the figures presenteds

There are now 2,867 woolen establishments in the United States, having a value of $324,535,241, and they manufacture a product valued in 1890 at $345,942,824. They paid in wages in that year, $76,768,871, as against $47,-389,087 in 1880.

The free wool question is simply a question whether these millions of dollars are to be retained in this country or to be diverted for the benefit of Asiatic and South American agriculturists, whose labor is well paid at the rate of 25 cents a day.

THE Tariff is a Tax. We confess it, announce it, assert it.

No intelligent man will try to deny that it is a tax. It is a heavy tax, an The Tariff oppressive tax, strangulation tax. is a Tax. So far, so good

Just at this point comes our mighty-BUT. It is the foreigner who is taxed, oppressed and impoverished by it. That simple fact throws a flood of light on the Tariff Tax question. If you doubt, ask the tin plate makers of Wales who have seen their profits disappear to make room for the American

Ask the Chemnitz hosiery manufacturers who have been delivering goods in this market, duty paid, for less than they received under the old and lower

The pearl button manufacturers of Austria whose business has been captured by America will tell you who is oppressed by the McKinley law.

So will the cotton tie makers of Enggland

So will the lace curtain makers of Nottingham and the worsted manufacturers of Bradford, and the plush men of Huddersfield.

his election and subscribe to his campaign fund. They can afford to. The success of his policy would mean untold wealth to them. If money could elect a President, their money would elect CLEVELAND. But, thank God, money cannot carry an election against the convictions of the American people. Least of all can foreign gold do so. That is why BENJAMIN HARRISON will continue to occupy the White House for some years yet. But the Tariff Tax will stand.

Our people rejoice in it.

It is a tax that protects and enriched them at the expense of the foreign enemies of American industry.

DURING the eleven years the Republicans had a majority in the House of Representatives they reduced taxation $360,000,000, and during the eleven years the Democrats have had the House they only reduced taxation about $6,000,000.

THE McKinley bill raised the duty on flaxseed or linseed oil from 25 cents a gallon to 32 cents a gallon.

The price, which two years ago was 57 cents a gallon, is now 34 cents a gallon, a reduction under the higher rate of duty of more than 40 per cent.

THE editor of THE LEDGER is not on trial; and if he were, and needed a certificate as to his relations to the old soldiers, he would not call on any one connected with The Bulletin, which takes such great pleasure in classing them as "coffee coolers" and "Government paupers."

THE Republicans of Wisconsin have overthrown one gerrymander of that state, which had resulted in the election of WILLIAM F. VILAS to the United States Senate, and are now making a gallant onslaught in the Supreme Court upon a second, which was enacted by the same Democratic Legislature that enacted the
